Once you are logged in you can determine the flight options that fit your schedule by simply entering the required travel information.

Type in the airport code of your arrival and departure cities. Don't know the code? Click on the "TO" or "FROM" links to access our airport code finder.

Enter your desired travel dates manually or click on the calendar icon.

The screenshot shows the 'interline fare calculator' search page. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'Search Flights' (highlighted with a red circle), 'Select Flights', 'List', and 'Confirm'. Below the header, there are links for 'Logout', 'My Profile', and 'Help'. The main search area includes:

- Type of Trip: Radio buttons for Round Trip (selected), One Way, and Multi-City.
- Type of Flight: Radio buttons for Non Stop (selected), One Stop, and All.
- Flight Details: Two rows of input fields for 'From', 'To', 'Date', and 'Time'. The first row shows IAH to LAX on 06/16/2009 at Anytime. The second row shows LAX to IAH on 06/17/2009 at Anytime. Each date field has a calendar icon.
- Limit flight results to: A dropdown menu set to 10.
- Preferred airline: A dropdown menu set to CONTINENTAL AIRLINES (CO).
- passengers: A section with a '#' symbol.
- Miss Last Minute: A checkbox that is checked.
- connection times: Two input fields: 'Minimum Connection Time' (set to 1:00) and 'Maximum Wait Time (layover)'. Both are followed by '(hh:mm)'.
- Buttons: A blue 'c' button and a red 'go' button.

What's your preference? One way, non-stop, it's your choice.

Select a specific time of day to limit your flight results.

The world is yours, select the number of flight results.

Click on the check box to indicate who is traveling.

Click "go" to start your fare search.

Minimum connection time also known as the layover time, is automatically set by default for a minimum of one hour and has no maximum, however you can modify this.

The next screen shows your flight options, including itineraries with multiple stops.
